Has the Qur’an tackled environmental issues?

{Do not spread corruption on earth after it has been set aright, but call upon Him with fear and hope. Indeed, the mercy of Allah is close to those who do good.} [256] Surat al-A‘rāf: 56.

{Corruption has appeared on land and sea because of what people’s hands have earned, so that He may cause them to taste the consequence of some of their deeds, so that they may return.} [257] Surat ar-Rūm: 41.

{When they leave [you], they strive to spread corruption in the land and destroy crops and livestock, whereas Allah does not like corruption.} [258] Surat al-Baqarah: 205.

{And on the earth there are neighboring [yet different] tracts of land, and gardens of grapevines, grains and palm trees – some growing in clusters from one root or standing alone. They are all irrigated with the same water, yet We cause some of them excel others in taste. Indeed, there are signs in this for people of understanding.} [259] Surat ar-Ra‘d: 4.
