How does Islam maintain social rights?

Islam teaches us that social duties must be built on love, kindness, and respect for others.

It laid down the standards and criteria and defined the rights and duties concerning all relations that connect the society.

{Worship Allah and do not associate any partners with Him. Be kind to parents, relatives, orphans, the needy, near and distant neighbors, close friends, wayfarers, and slaves whom you own. For Allah does not like those who are arrogant, boastful.} [260] Surat an-Nisā': 36.

{...Treat them kindly. If you dislike them, it may be that you dislike something which Allah has put much good in it.} [261] Surat an-Nisā': 19.

{O you who believe, when you are told to make room in your gatherings, then make room; Allah will give you abundance. And when you are told to rise, then rise; Allah will raise in ranks those who believed from among you and those who are given knowledge. And Allah is All-Aware of what you do.} [262] Surat al-Mujādilah: 11.
